Sun, 08 Jul 2018 07:33:00 GMT - The Wise Man's fear picks up directly after Name of the Wind covering Kvothe's life at college and his journey to becoming warrior, not just a scholar. Kovthe matures greatly in this portion of his life experiencing other cultures and the limits of his own knowledge. Rothfuss build upon the relationships of the first book letting you truly know the characters. This is probably the best sequel you'll ever read, making you pull all nighters just to finish it.
